Located in the heart of the city, it is not mere chance that Peck (via Spadari) is defined as 'the Temple of Gastronomy': an iconic reference point and one that is close to the hearts of all Milanese citizens. Here you can find rare specialities inspired by the best of Made in Italy and not only. In fact, it's almost impossible to leave without purchasing some sort of delectable treat, whether this be a jar of caviar or one of its more than 200 blends of teas and infusions. Conversely, nestling in the midst of the 'Quadrilatero della Moda', il Salumaio di Montenapoleone is more than a delicatessen, it's an oasis of sought-after flavours (from fresh pasta to excellent cheeses) set against the

At the side, a suggestive image of Salumaio di Montenapoleone where you can find specialities for discerning foodies set against a backdrop of rare beauty (Palazzo Bagatti Valsecchi); on the facing page, a glimpse of the iconic headquarters of Peck in the city's highly central via Spadari, renowned for its more than 3,000 vintage labels.

PECK

For discerning gourmand palates from all over the world, it offers a selection of delicacies inspired by the best that the world has to offer: truffles, caviar, salmon, foie gras and anything else that your heart could desire. The search for quality is Peck's primary aim, achieved through a careful selection of wines from all over the world with more than 3,000 labels (comfortably housed in the cellar) including wines, distillates and rare magnums that enrich the emporium's offer of whites, reds, rosés, Italian and French sparkling wines.

PASTICCERIA COVA

Pasticceria Cova in via Montenapoleone is one of those places whose appellation 'historic venue' is fully justified. A cult destination for gourmands since 1817, it has had the singular honour of being mentioned by name and, what's more, several times, in the works of Ernest Hemingway, who loved its atmosphere and delicacies. If you're considering going there to pay homage to this literary genius, you can rest assured that you will return for other reasons: indulge in the sheer exquisiteness of its cakes, pastries, ice-cream, sugared almonds or savoury snacks, created by master pastry chefs based on time-honoured recipes. Perfect for an 'Italian-style' breakfast, consisting of coffee and brioches, Cova also offers a light lunch option.
